

4 Exhibitions Abroad Support Program

Application Form: Q-EAS
Section in Charge: Arts and Culture Department

This program is designed to support museums and art institutions overseas that organize exhibitions introducing Japanese art and culture to audiences overseas. In addition, this program is designed to support overseas international exhibitions such as biennials/triennials introducing Japanese artists and their works.

Eligibility

Overseas museums and art institutions (i.e., located outside of Japan)

*If the exhibition travels to more than one venue, the host institution should consolidate the grant requests and only one application should be submitted for the whole project—the Japan Foundation will not accept multiple applications for one project.

Eligible Projects

Exhibitions that will open between April 1, 2015, and March 31, 2016, and:

- (1) Introduce Japanese art and culture, are planned and executed by a museum or an art institution abroad;
- (2) Introduce Japanese artists and their works in the context of international exhibitions, such as biennials/triennials;
- (3) Are created through artist-in-residence programs and promote the expansion of networks among artists, curators, and researchers in Japan and overseas, and have a clear concept and concrete plan for exhibitions.

Grant Coverage

Part of the following expenses incurred and paid between April 1, 2015, and March 31, 2016:

- (1) Packing and shipping costs (excluding insurance costs);
- (2) Catalogue production costs (including digital catalogue costs);
- (3) Traveling costs for dispatched or invited artists, curators, and specialists (air fare, train fare and accommodation fees) (excluding costs due to travelling for preliminary research and development)

*Please note that this program does not cover the production cost of art works, installation costs and artists' fees.

5 Support Program for Translation and Publication on Japan

Application Form: Q-TPS
Section in Charge: Art and Culture Department

This program is designed to provide financial assistance for foreign publishers to translate and/or publish Japan-related books. The grant shall cover part of the translation cost and/or publishing cost (paper cost, plate-making cost, printing cost, binding cost, etc.). By enabling the reduction of the selling price, and thus making books more accessible to the general public, especially books that are difficult to publish commercially, the program aims to promote better understanding of Japanese culture and Japanese studies abroad.

Eligibility

Overseas publishers (corporations). Domestic publishers (corporations) may also apply only if there is a written contract/agreement with foreign book distribution companies.

Eligible Projects

Translation and/or publication project of Japan-related books in the fields of humanities, social sciences, or arts, which fulfill all of the following requirements:

- (1) The translated book must be published between April 1, 2015, and February 28, 2016. However, in the case of an application for only the "translation grant," the publishing deadline is within two years after the completion of the translated manuscript.
- (2) The original book written in Japanese must already be published.
- (3) In principle, translations must be made directly from the original book. (Retranslations of works already translated into another language will only be considered for applications from countries where the number of translators is limited.)
- (4) The copyright arrangements concerning the original book (and retranslated book, if any) must already be completed.
- (5) As for the translation fee, a written contract between the publisher and the translator must already be concluded.
- (6) Projects must not be used for religious or political purposes.

*The following projects are not eligible:

- (1) Periodicals, special issues, proceedings, exhibition catalogues, guidebooks, pamphlets, language dictionaries and Japanese language teaching materials, etc.;
- (2) Newly written works, or books directly published in a foreign language (not eligible from the Fiscal Year 2013);
- (3) Works not expected to secure wide-distribution, including those to be donated for free;
- (4) Projects for which the translator's fee is paid by royalties; and
- (5) Reprints of works already published.

Grant Coverage

Part of the following costs incurred and paid between April 1, 2015, and February 28, 2016.

- a) Translation: Translation fee
- b) Publication: Production costs (costs for paper, plate-making, printing, binding, etc. paid to printing companies, etc.)

*Please note that only the expenses paid after April 1, 2015, are applicable. Any expenses paid before that are not applicable.

*Applicants may apply for "translation only," "publication only," or "translation and publication."

*Grant payments will be made after the completion of the project.

*The average amount of assistance for FY 2014 is 750,000 yen.

*Editing costs, copyright clearance costs, design layout costs, shipping costs, revising costs, etc., are not applicable.
